

Tales of Clever Peter

Clever Peter outsmarted simidchiyata

He was young. Clever Peter was very poor. No money to shave, and his mustache and beard. At one time called him he became a soldier. And how will appear with that beard? He went through the market to shave, but without money nobody wanted to shave. Went here, went there, pent at last in an simidchiya * watching stare, stare up. Simidchiyata saw him and said to him:

- What only just staring at?

Clever Peter said:

- I watch you buns that I at one time to eat them!

- You! - Said symidchiyata.

- Let's make a bet, to bet!

- What to bet? - Asked simidchiyata. Clever Peter said:

- If you do not eat them, you'll shave my beard and mustache!

Simidchiyata agreed and called a barber, not escape Peter.

Peter began to eat. Eaten just eaten dinner go out nadumkal is healthy and could no longer eat. then berberine caught Peter and shaved his beard and mustache.

Clever Peter laughed and said:

- To be alive and well, uncle simidchi that fed me with simidets and soldiering me shave!

* Simidchiya - A person who makes or sells buns. Bun is a bun from white flour, sour special yeast.

Clever Peter is the hero of Mariovo folklore. As its name suggests it has the smarts and wit and even deceit. Rival in the stories about him is Nasreddin Hodja, the personification of the typical Turk. After the liberation of Balkan occupies its place in its modern version - Bai Ganjo. Unlike Bai Ganjo, which is sometimes considered vulgar, simple and having other negative qualities Clever Peter remained in the minds of Marivwc as a positive hero.
