

Tales of Clever Peter

For an arrogant monk

One evening Clever Peter returned to his car from the city, who had gone to sell wood. On the way, he caught up with a monk who went to their village. Without asking him, he jumped and banged his car. Sly Peter is nothing to sneer liked that monk or greeting, nor even asked him, can you ride. And shrunk at a time, passing by muddy marshy place.

Having reached this point, the car is so mired in the mud, that the oxen could not download them. Then there is no other trick. Clever Peter rolled up his pant legs, jumped out of the car, izpregnal dobichetata and drove them to the village. Monk Alone in the car.

- Santa duhovniche! - Consult Clever Peter to him. - Do you know Greek?

- I know. Why?

- Because in nest boxes are our bishop, being doshel in the village, told that who knows Greek could with him to travel around the world! Ha now you come down and stretch out, and forward!

Clever Peter is the hero of Mariovo folklore. As its name suggests it has the smarts and wit and even deceit. Rival in the stories about him is Nasreddin Hodja, the personification of the typical Turk. After the liberation of Balkan occupies its place in its modern version - Bai Ganjo. Unlike Bai Ganjo, which is sometimes considered vulgar, simple and having other negative qualities Clever Peter remained in the minds of Marivwc as a positive hero.
